

Eva Kaye-Zwiebel, PhD

evainkenya@gmail.com

SUMMARY

Social science research professional, project manager, and teacher. Committed to multi-method data collection and action-oriented analysis. Seeking to re-enter the workforce full time.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Independent Writer and Teacher 2016-
- Write about policy change, public goods, and oral history at SmallStones website
 - Teach social science and research skills to high school students
- Program Coordinator, UCSF AI4All, San Francisco, CA 2019
- Organized a summer program to increase diversity in the Artificial Intelligence workforce
- Project Manager, US Common Sense Policy Group, Mountain View, CA 2015-2016
- Led creation of a database rating the fiscal health of 13,000 US municipalities
 - Managed $850,000 grant and a staff of 10
- Program Evaluator, Resource Development Associates, Oakland, CA 2013-2014
- Assessed program effectiveness for public agencies and nonprofits
 - Devised data indicators and tracking methods, led focus groups, wrote evaluation reports
- Postdoctoral Fellow and Lecturer, Occidental College and USC, Los Angeles, CA 2011-2012
- Taught courses about African politics and institutions for natural resource management
- Researcher, Princeton University “Water, Savannas & Society” Project, Kenya 2006-2011
- Designed and executed a study of community-led natural resource conservation
 - Created survey and census protocols, trained local staff, camped in situ for 13 months

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

- Tutor and Mentor, JFCS Refugee & Immigrant Services, Pittsburgh, PA 2021-
- Country Expert for Kenya, “Varieties of Democracy” Project, Notre Dame University 2012-2019
- Responder, Santa Clara Network for Rapid Response to ICE, San José, CA 2017-2018
- Board Member, “Bend the Arc” Partnership for Justice, SF South Bay Chapter, CA 2016-2017

SKILLS

Digital: Microsoft Office, SPSS, Tableau, Wordpress

Languages: French, beginner Swahili

PUBLICATIONS

- Kenyan Pastoralist Societies in Transition, with E. King. Ecology & Society 19(3): 17 2014
- Development Aid & Public Goods: Pastoralist Communities in Kenya. Dissertation. 2011
- Measuring Success: Post-Conflict UN Police Reform, with F. Gunja et al. 2005

EDUCATION

- PhD, Princeton University, Political Science 2011
- Fulbright Scholar, “Sciences Po” Africa Studies Center, Bordeaux, France 2004
- BA, Yale University, French, International Studies, Cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa 2003