

Eva Kaye-Zwiebel, PhD

Social science researcher and writer. Expert at integrating document-based research with in-depth interviews and observation to convey complex realities. Specializing in public interest topics such as public goods provision, procedural fairness, and institutional design. Committed to participatory, multi-method data collection to quantify difficult-to-measure outcomes and improve individual wellbeing.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Independent Consultant, San Francisco Bay Area 2016-2021

Selected Projects

Country Expert-Kenya, Varieties of Democracy Institute, Notre Dame University

- Rated hundreds of aspects of the policy, legal, and social environments in Kenya, enabling comparative analysis of democratic governance around the world.

Program Coordinator, AI4All at University of California-San Francisco

- Organized a summer program to increase diversity in the Artificial Intelligence field.

Co-founder and Writer, Small Stones Website

- Solicited and developed oral histories about policy change, advocacy, and public goods.
- Curated educational resources for civic engagement.

Private Instructor, AdmissionAG Tutoring

- Designed and taught an enrichment seminar on government.

Public Finance Data Project Manager, US Common Sense, Mountain View, CA 2015-2016

- Led creation of a database and ranking system explaining the financial health of 13,000 municipalities.
- Managed $850,000 grant to collect 100,000+ audited financial reports, systematically extract key data, and develop a novel index of fiscal position.
- Recruited and trained project staff.
- Coordinated an expert advisory board to ensure the methodological validity of the index.

Program Evaluator, Resource Development Associates, Oakland, CA 2013-2014

- Assessed program effectiveness for public and nonprofit agencies to improve client outcomes.
- Devised data indicators and tracking methods suited to agencies' capacity.
- Led focus groups attentive to cultural competency in order to obtain candid client feedback.
- Wrote and presented evaluations to inform public officials of findings.

Postdoctoral Fellow and Lecturer, Occidental College and USC, Los Angeles, CA 2011-2012

- Taught courses about African politics and natural resource management institutions.
- Lectured publicly and mentored students.

Researcher, Princeton University "Water, Savannas & Society" Project, Kenya 2006-2011

- Planned and executed a study of community-led conservation in adaptation to climate change.
- Designed surveys, experimental games, and ethnographic interviews, resulting in original data sets.
- Analyzed the data, demonstrating inverse relation of donor funding and local mutual aid practices.
- Trained staff and lived in situ for 13 months.

ADDITIONAL RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Refugee Mentor, Jewish Family and Children's Services , Pittsburgh, PA	2021
Witness-Responder, Rapid Response Network to ICE Raids, San José, CA	2017-2018
Oral History Trainee, Voice of Witness Workshop, San Francisco, CA	2017
Board Member, Bend the Arc Partnership for Justice, South Bay Chapter, CA	2016-2017

SELECTED SKILLS

IRB Proposal writing, SPSS, Wordpress
Languages: French, beginner Swahili, notions of Arabic

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Kaye-Zwiebel & King. "Kenyan Pastoralist Societies in Transition." Ecology & Society 19(3):17. 2014.
Kaye. "Development Aid & Public Goods Provision: Pastoralists in Kenya." Dissertation. 2011.
Kaye et al. "Measuring Success in Post-Conflict Police Reform". UN Dept. of Peacekeeping Ops. 2005.

EDUCATION

PhD , Princeton University , Political Science Department	2011
Fulbright Grant , Institut d'Etudes Politiques , Bordeaux, France	2004
BA , Yale University , French Department, Cum laude , Phi Beta Kappa	2003